Submitted to His Highness.

***

Under the order prescribed in the Precedence List, the three principal heads of departments take their rank in Class I as shown below:

1. Revenue Commissioner,
2. Inspector-General of Police,
3. Excise Commissioner.

2. Rule 2 of the order fixing the Precedence List states that officers in Class I will take precedence in the order shown therein, subject to such changes as may be made by His Highness on personal or other considerations.

3. The status of the three officers referred to is the same and they are all recruited from the general service. But, under the order fixed in the Precedence List, a junior officer holding the place of the Revenue Commissioner or the Inspector-General of Police takes rank above his senior who may be holding the place of Excise Commissioner. For example, Mr. Chandy, the present Excise Commissioner, is senior in the service to Mr. A. Subrahmania Iyer, the present Inspector-General of Police. It is felt as an anomaly that his place in the Precedence List should be below a junior officer.

4. To avoid this difficulty, I beg to suggest that these three officers may be bracketted in the Precedence List as of equal precedence, the officers concerned taking precedence inter se according to their personal seniority in the service

5. If this principle is adopted the order of the three officers now occupying these places will be as shown below:-

1. Mr

1. Mr. K.R.Srinivasa Iyengar,
Revenue Commissioner.

2. Mr. K.Chandy,
Excise Commissioner.

3. Mr. A.Subrahmania Iyer,
Inspector-General of Police.

I beg to submit this recommendation for the gracious orders of His Highness.
